

Dear Autism Friends,

It has come to my attention that a Middle Tennessee law firm is considering a class action lawsuit against employers and/or health insurance companies who refuse to pay for behavioral therapy for children with Autism. The firm is seeking information from families so it can make a decision about whether to file a lawsuit. The lawsuit would attempt to require the employers and/or health insurance companies to pay for applied behavioral analysis.

You may want to consider completing a short survey at which time you can indicate your interest.

Thank you for your time and interest in this very important matter. Please pass this information on to your friends, family and extended network.

Sincerely,

Nan Pazdro
